2 Work in pairs. Talk about your friends and penfriends.

I've got two friends, Tom and Vláška. Tom is 11, he lives in London in Great Britain. He's got a brother and a sister. He can swim, but he can't ski. He likes travelling.

My friend Vláška is 11, too. We live in the same town and we go to the same school and class. He can play football and basketball, and he likes English. He doesn't like Maths.

3 Listen to the dialogue, then read.

WOJCIECH: Hi! What's your name?
KAREL: My name's Karel. What's your name?
WOJCIECH: My name's Wojciech.
KAREL: Where do you come from, Wojciech?
WOJCIECH: I come from Poland but now I live here, in the Czech Republic, in Prague.
KAREL: Can you speak Czech, Wojciech?
WOJCIECH: Yes, a bit. And I learn Czech at school!

KAREL: And why are you here?
WOJCIECH: My parents work here. And my grandparents live in Prague, too.
KAREL: Do you want to be my friend, Wojciech?
WOJCIECH: Oh yes! That's great! Thanks a lot! Can we play football in the afternoon?
KAREL: OK.
